LCLT SARD
(Sustainable Agriculture and Rural Development)

Lopez Community Land Trust has initiated successful agriculture-related programs, including:

- The premier Mobile Processing Unit (MPU), the first such unit to receive a USDA Grant of Inspection. The MPU allows Lopez farmers to supply their community with healthy, wholesome, locally grown meats.

- This local Farm Products Guide.
- Lopez Fresh, a fresh food bank, now located with the Lopez Island Family Resource Cener.
- Co-founded the Garden and Farm Program with the Lopez School District.
- The Grain Project, focusing on locally grown non-GMO grain and equipment appropriate to Lopez.

TIPS FOR VISITING FARMS

- We suggest calling ahead for directions, hours, and product availability.
- Please do not bring pets.

WHEN SHOPPING FOR LOCAL PRODUCTS

- Look for the Islands Certified Local program logo on island products at the farmers markets, grocery stores and food specialty shops. Participating food processors use a minimum of 75% island grown ingredients in their products.
- Visit the Lopez, Orcas, and San Juan Farmers' Markets, the San Juan County Fair, and the Lopez Holiday Bazaar for a wide selection of goods.
- For agricultural-related information contact WSU Extension, San Juan County at 360 378-4414 or http://sanjuan.wsu.edu
