Question 1
Evans (p 92)

Q. The age of a horse can be determined with considerable accuracy up to 9 years of age by examination of what type of teeth?
A. The incisors

Question 2
Evans (p 157)

Q. What is a separation of the hoof wall near the toe called?
A. Seedy toe

Question 3
4H Horse Science (p 40)

Q. What are the two kinds of lice found on horses?
A. Biting and Sucking

Question 4
Evans (p 59)

Q. The POA breed of pony was started by crossing which two breeds?
A. A Shetland pony [stallion] and an Appaloosa [mare] (NOTE: information in brackets is not required)

Question 5
Evans (p 209)

Q. What term describes ears that are carried horizontally to the side?
A. Lop ears

Question 6
4H Horse Science (p 9)

Q. At which gaits will lameness be most noticeable?
A. Walk or trot

Question 7
Q. What are the 4H Colors?
A. Green and White
Question 8
Horse Science (p 38)

Q. From what type of wound will horses most commonly get Tetanus?
A. Puncture wound

END OF ONE ON ONE QUESTIONS:

BEGINNING OF OPEN QUESTIONS:

Question 9
Horse Science (p12)

Q. How many and what kinds of teeth do horses have at birth?
A. 24: 12 molars and 12 incisors

Question 10
Evans (p181)

Q. Paddling is associated with what type of toe position?
A. Toe-in or Pigeoned Toed

Question 11
Horse Science (p 7)

Q. The front legs of a horse usually carry what fractions of its body weight?
A. 2/3 (two thirds; 67%)

Question 12
Horse Science (38)

Q. What is another name for distemper in horses?
A. Strangles

Question 13
4H Performance Horse Manual (p 42)

Q. There are five major faults in hunt seat/huntseat over fences equitation that might be cause for elimination. Name THREE.

A. Refusal; Loss of Stirrup; Trotting while on course when not part of test: loss of reins; Excessive speed

Question 14
4H Horse Judging Guide (p 32)
Q. What type of class is being judged where the rider is NOT being judged, but rather the horse's way of going?
A. Pleasure class

Question 15
Evans (p 90)

Q. With what are muscles attached to bones?
A. Tendons

Question 16
4H Horses and Horsemanship (p 6)

Q. What does it mean if a horse has Zebra markings?
A. Dark stripes on legs and/or withers

Question 17
Horse Science (p 16)

Q. Name the cycle in females more commonly called "heat"
A. Estrous cycle

Question 18
Horse Science ( p 7)
Q. What is the term for striking the fore foot with the tow of the hind foot on the same side?
A. Forging

Question 19
Horse Science (p 22)

Q. If a foal's chromosomes are XX, what is the sex of the foal?
A. Female

Question 20
Horse Science (p 27)

Q. To what nutrient group do iron, copper, calcium, and phosphorus belong?
A. Minerals

THIS IS A TOSS UP QUESTION

Question 21
Evans (p 196)
Q. What does the central nervous system consist of?
A. The brain, brain stem, and spinal cord
THIS IS A BONUS QUESTION
Evans (p 238)

Q. Name 3 symptoms of a deficiency of Vitamin A.
A. Night blindness, anorexia, watering of the eyes (lacrimation), keritnization of the cornea and skin, respiratory difficulties, reproductive failure, convulsive seizures, blindness, bone lesions, impaired resistance to diseases.

Question 22
Horses and Horsemanship (p56)

Q. What Native American tribe bred the Appaloosa horse?
A. Nez Perce

Question 23
Evans (p 31)

Q. Other than speed, what is a difference between a pace and a trot?
A. Trot is a diagonal movement; pace is a lateral movement

Question 24
Horse Science (p 3)

Q. Name two types of vision that a horse uses.
A. Monocular and binocular

END OF ROUND 1