1-6pm  Release Still Life Entries: CLAIM TAGS REQUIRED

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27
9am-6pm  Release Still Life Entries: CLAIM TAGS REQUIRED

Any remaining still life exhibits after 5 pm on Sept 27 will be boxed for donation to charity. Any perishable exhibit (garden, foods, etc) will be discarded. All exhibits must be checked out with 4-H clerks before removal from the building. Claim tags will be required.

STATE 4-H FAIR SCHEDULES

STILL LIFE DUE/RELEASE

Aug 29  Accept Still Life Exhibits, 1-6 pm
Aug 30  Accept Still Life Exhibits, 9 am to 6 pm (excluding Class 160 – garden and Class 120 – foods)
Sept 6 & 13  Accept Still Life Exhibits, 12-4pm
Sept 2  Accept garden (class 160) exhibits, 10am-12pm – any county
Sept 2-25  Accept foods exhibits (class 120), 10am-12pm on county day or on any day the exhibitor is attending the fair
Sept 16  Accept garden (class 160) exhibits, 10am-12pm – any county
Sept 17  Accept garden (class 160) exhibits, 10am-12pm – any county
Sept 20  Last day to receive still life exhibit from counties with late fairs (no later than 12 noon)
Sept 26  Release Still Life Exhibits, 1-6 pm
Sept 27  Release Still Life Exhibits, 10 am to 5 pm

Foods (Class 120) Exhibits – will be accepted on your county day, Sept 2-25, or on any day you will be participating in other fair activities. DO NOT MAIL CLASS 120 EXHIBITS.

Garden (Class 160) Exhibits – will be accepted as scheduled on Sept 2, 16 and 18, or on any day you will be participating in other fair activities.

Educational Displays (Class 70) – will be accepted on Aug 29-30. If animal educational displays are entered prior to the animal show, they will be stored in the Exhibit Building. Exhibitors may pick them up when they arrive with their animals and display them in the appropriate barns.

Creative Kids Projects (Classes 41-44) – must be entered on Aug 29-30.

Mail In Entries – will be accepted until late entry day (Sept 20). If received after Aug 30, the items will be stored and judged as judges are available. Exhibits will be put on display after judging.

Fleece/Fiber (Classes 310-313) Exhibits – may be entered on Aug 29-30 with the still life exhibits in the 4-H Display Building, or on Sept 16, from 10 am to 1 pm in the Llama Display Area of Barn M. Those items entered prefair will be stored until Sept 16.

EQUINE DUE/RELEASE

No equine will be admitted to barns until vet checked. If your animal doesn't pass vet check, you will need to take it home immediately. There are no facilities to hold rejected animals. Equine should arrive so vet check can be completed and animals stalled during the hours given below for each section. No vets are scheduled after check-in time.

All equine and tack must be out of the barns, and stalls completely cleaned immediately following barn release announcement, to allow time to prepare the barns for the next section. Animals and tack must be removed immediately when released. You are encouraged to remove excess tack and equipment early on release day; you can drive onto the fairgrounds until 8:45 am for this purpose.

COUNTY DAY SCHEDULE

Activities normally included on county days are: public presentations, public speaking, kitchen activities, performing arts, and 4-H in action. County Days are assigned to have a balance of activity on each day throughout the fair. If you must attend the fair on a day other than your regularly scheduled county day, please call for scheduling assistance. Home schooled 4-H members are encouraged to schedule their County Day activities on weekdays, regardless of the County Day assignment. Please call for scheduling assistance.

For scheduling assistance, call 253-770-5410 (the main 4-H fair office) after August 21. Every attempt will be made to accommodate your scheduling needs.
